Basic Report

Sojourner Truth
1864
Anonymous (American)
Albumen print carte de visite

Receiving Suffrage Tokens: Suffragists Besiege War Brides and Grooms at License Bureau
c. 1917
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragettes open the "Hopperie" at Luna Park, Coney Island 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

"Votes for Women" Veil
1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Christabel Parkhurst (Left) Noted Pre-War Suffragist Agitator, Unfurls the Banner Carried by Her Militant Legions in Their Campaign in England
1929
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Mrs. Evan Evans
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

"Votes for Women" Veil
1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Sojourner Truth
1864
Anonymous (American)
Albumen print carte de visite
Basic Report

Mrs. Olympia Brown of Racine, Wisconsin, and Miss Betty Graham of Portland, Oregon, the Oldest and Youngest Suffragettes at the Chicago Convention

At the New York State Suffrage function to be held at the Biltmore New York, February 16th, Florence Fleming Noyes the Exponent of Rhythmic Expression Will for the First Time be Seen in her Latest Dance “The Emancipation.”

Mrs. Cary Chapman Catt
Teaching Suffrage District Leaders, Yonkers, New York

c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Julia Ward Howe

c. 1910
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
Mrs. James Eustis Assists a Customer at the Bazaar Run for the Benefit for the New York State Woman Suffrage Party 1917
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Left to right: Miss Hurst and Miss Stahl in light blue costumes to be worn in the Suffragette Pageant
c. 1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

In the Night Camp of the Suffragettes on the Plain of Hempstead
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

From Left to Right: Miss Gertrude S. Hunter, Secretary of the Minnesota Suffrage Association, and Margaret L. Foley, of Boston, Massachusetts, who is called the premier orator of the cause.
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Mrs. Herbert S. Carpenter, Marshall, Leading the New York State Division in the Suffragists Parade on Fifth Avenue, New York, October 23rd
1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragette Hikers about to March up Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D. C., February 27, 1913
1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
The Suffragettes Statue of Victory
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Cary Chapman Catt
Opening the Chicago National Suffrage Convention
1920
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

"Votes for Women" Tour Boat
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffrage Parade on 5th Ave.
c. 1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Group on the Steps of the Carnegie Public Library Group Just Prior to Marching to the White House to Visit President Wilson in the Cause of Women’s Suffrage
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

The Pioneer Delegation in the Suffragette Parade on Saturday, May 4
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
Basic Report

The Herald Leading the Parade
1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Susan B. Anthony
1898
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Mrs. Glendower Evans, the First Suffragette to Arrive in Washington for the Suffragist Automobile Parade, July 30, 1913
1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Spring Tea Given in Honor of Dr. Anna H. Shaw at the Hotel McAlpin, April 19
1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

"The Gold Key" presented to Mrs. Alice Snitjer Burke and Miss Nell Richards 1916
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Carrie Catt
1931
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
Mrs. Oliver Harriman
1917
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)

Pretty Advocate of “Votes for Women” Creates Sensation with Plea for Cause Painted on Her Charming Back 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)

First Woman Voter in New York State
1918
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)

Group of Suffragists in Pennsylvania Station about to Leave for Philadelphia
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)

Suffragist Leaders in Conference at home of Mrs. Belmont 1914
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)

Suffragettes at the United States Capitol where they presented petitions to the Senate for the right to cast ballots, July 31, 1913
1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper
(vintage)
Basic Report

Suffragists Parade past the White House 1917
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Auto parade of the Suffragists on Fifth Avenue
May 1st
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragists Organizing Big Yellow Torch Light Rallies for September 11th and 25th
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Group of Illinois Suffragettes
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragettes Forced to Obtain Peddlar’s License to Sell Tickets for Suffrage Baseball Day at the Polo Grounds
1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Spring Tea Given in Honor of Dr. Anna H. Shaw at the Hotel McAlpin
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
General Rosalie Jones in her Pilgrimage Auto "Victory"
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragists Invade Subway Trains with Lap Board Signs
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragists Not Permitted to Hold Tableaux in Central Park; Hold it Outside
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Barber Day Celebration July 27th the Womans Suffrage Party of Manhattan and Bronx
c. 1916
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffrage Tableaux in Not in Park
c. 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragettes Speak on Wall Street
c. 1913
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
A Group of the Suffragists of the Congressional Union, July 13, 1914 1914
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

500 Women Call upon Sen. O’Gorman to Draw Him to the Suffrage Ranks 1915
Anonymous (American)
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Miss Jane Addams and Mrs. Harper
1913
George V. Buck
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragette Tableaux Representing "Justice" 1913
George V. Buck
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Suffragists Present Monster Petition to President Wilson
1915
George V. Buck
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)

Group of Suffragettes at Senate Office Building
ca. 1915
George V. Buck
Gelatin silver print on paper (vintage)
Sojourner Truth (I'll Keep You Scratchin')
c. 1964
Calvin Burnett
Lithograph on paper